

Qiao Liming
China Director
Global Wind Energy Council

Qiao Liming joined Global Wind Energy Council in 2008 as policy director. She is now serving GWEC as China director based in Beijing. The Global Wind Energy Council represents the major wind energy associations as well as the major companies involved in the global wind industry. (Please see <http://www.gwec.net> for more information.)

Ms. Qiao has been working in the field of climate and energy since 2003, with a focus on renewable energy policy and international climate policy. Before joining GWEC, she worked with WWF on various climate related programs. She participated in climate negotiation as an NGO observer for many years and is familiar with the international process.

Liming's current focus is renewable energy policy in China, especially in the wind energy sector. She works closely with the industry to promote a better policy environment for China's wind sector. She is also interested in the topics of finance for renewable energy, trade issues and technology transfer.
